What do councillors do? Councillors have three main components to their work.

- 1. Decision making - Through meetings and attending committees with other elected members, councillors decide which activities to support, where money should be spent, what services should be delivered and what policies should be implemented.
- 2. Monitoring - Councillors make sure that their decisions lead to efficient and effective services by keeping an eye on how well things are working.
- 3. Getting involved locally - As local representatives, councillors have responsibilities towards their residents and local organisations. These responsibilities and duties often depend on what the council wants to achieve and how much time is available, and may include attending local meetings and lobbying on local issues on behalf of members of the public.
